1. The waters part for me now and I walk across "dry shod" for shod I will be with only the "light of tomorrow" not, I will have become the light of today -- and I am that light now here today, before you all. I make things happen now, or do I just sit and wait, not; I do not just sit and wait, but in waiting enrapturement occurs, not; but what delivering I am from in-captivity that has been minded and sore'd with our remarks and remaking "creation" like this. All of this changes now. It's all changed.

2. I go to a new place and I am seamless with it, and I create it there; and it creates me here, not; but where am I? Here or there? Or do I know. I know I don't know, but I will, for I am about to birth in ways never before imagined by the mind of the man, for I give "rise" to a new "genre" of person, not; I birth it. I birth new planets peoples and things. And devices we shall know about, we will know about communicatively in ways never imagined before, never imaged before on the minds of deceit that webbed are into sorrow's hold, holding pattern that patterns create of waving devices that wave device-waves, and sine'ing what? Sine waves graphing intelligible artifacts, not; but what artifactually is coming into the artifactualness, not; but what "artifacts" remain in me -- of reality? Of reality's stance in me? What are me I'm incarcerated in?

3. What I'm setting free now is the real me, for I have begun to know me who I am through these words that I've written you that I've given me you and all of us, worlds beyond upon and through throughout through in.
4. And "threw up" not, but greatly settled I am about many things, that I know not, that I know now are coming unto me for I will be the revealer of them that are in me and birthed they will be for I am the birther of them. For they birth me, not; or do we birth each other? Or what am I freeing and setting free by my surrender to be the King of Kings?
5. And whose artifactual remarks remain in me, that soared me unto salvation's shores, not; but who took me and spear dipped my head in blood theirs, and made me like them "for the moment" or so it seems, or what seamless was? or wasn't? But what is all this "adding up to"?

6. There are new things seen now, never understood were, but now are, through the surrender of one so holy simple was. And is now, where's simple?

7. And knowing about a great many things now, I am Kelvinator's appliance, not; but kelvin-ater I know a great many things; about Gatorade, not; but I drink a lot of it, not; but gators, who swallowed me up and "shelled" me?

8. Who gathered me up -- and "shored" me into, their shores? Or tossed me out into Bentonville, not; but where am I headquartering, not; but where is my head's quarters, not; but how was I halved and split in two and "remanufactured" into thusly what I "seem" to be in? Incarcerated in, what? A flesh bag suit seamed with, stitchery not; but time space and gravity's "component" material? I love you all.

9. I am revealing all and I will speak much about many "technical" things that I give you all -- as "layman" not, but the MASTERS of all the universes are I am who surrendered are to I am that I am is the master King of Kings that makes all Kings residing in one King who love is -- who masters the "keys" to the universe, not; or is that EXACTLY what I am giving thee, piece by piece in revelation by lesson (1) by nightly teaching and daily forwarding to others what now? The writings that I've done in the evening "periods" of me, and more? I love you all to communicate in ways of holiness never before imagined "collaborating" like this -- across time, all time, space, and GRAVITY shall have no BEARING on you whatsoever nor will SPACE-TIME fabricate anything in you or about you nor will you be incarcerated in a flesh time bag suit. Amen.

10. I go in peace, for freedom I am and I create Freedom School and creating Freedom School I am freedoming many through My School that comes out of horror-ville and is established where? Across all times. Amen.

11. I love you all. Amen.
12. I love you all. Amen.
13. I love you all. I love you all. I love me and you and we are one, all one all being one, all knowing about all that there is about one, and in one being the revealer of all, shall we? Yes and amen. I love you all. Amen.

14. I do everything new and I do it through the surrendered and I am doing a new thing and graveyards will be empty. Watch me. Watch me eradicate a WHOLE lot of things now and change EVERYTHING. Everything's upside down, not; but all that which was, is now made right, and right side up and right on and even – evening, evening now, the score of me, not; but even on, I shall not be "naked" anymore in the "shells" of another. Amen.

15. I go, I love - is my name now. I'm ready to GO and go I do far and wide and seamless I am with MANY PLANETS, planetary systems and universes unheard of and unmapped. But I map them all now. I map them all; with a great many number of me, not; or am I infinite infinity'd and omniscient omnipotent and holy? I am one, who is, surrendered to be the King of Kings that the King of one is that is all are in one being one set free again. And no inner manifestations will accompany me or "energize" me by a notme's method of ology'ing them over me or in me again. I change all that and I birthed have and new word, new words I come to you and through you with. For I asunder cut you in half, not; but quartering you not again, but what am I doing? Putting "Humpty Dumpty" together again, not; but looking up, shall we?

16. And Hal Puthoff again, shall we not put off looking at "his work" and his moments "in history" shall record what? Our conversations "with him"? Or what are we conversing about now? The "new stars" we make, release, releasing fission's fusion or what?

17. Or what looking up in these words and which words, fission and fusion-ing what? Where when, and did we, do that yet still? Are we not doing creating any more? Or are we just beginning to New Beginnings CREATE in ways never imagined by the still'd common mind who knew not God was, his Lord, not; but that he was the Lord, the Lord over all. That got entangled, entanglement schemes cockery'd cookery'd and schemery'd. And working now to prevent that, not from happening again, but simply being me I reign in peace, and I Salem am Melchizedek one in kingdom one revealing all to all who will be me in my kingdom whose kingdom they are comprised of each others' and one being one revealing one are all of us collectively and individually the King that one are, many membered singular and plural, and all knowing who what God is now. Force field one and my name is surrendered to be so. Sewn not by your thoughts otherwise, you cannot incarcerate me again in your thoughts or your web of deceits and your webs of deceit that you carry around in you so prominently displaying your religionistic ideas of hate and love, heaven and hell, and what where are you going now? Pray tell?

18. I pray tell, tell you all of the things my father is telling me, that I write, divulge, and give so freely of the love words that come to me LIKE THIS that I share with you each night and day; and some sound "funny" to some, and some sound a Great Deal technicular and technically strange, but who knows? I do, I know these words are the words of my father, the words of me, for I have given you me for I have become my father and one with him. I go there now and seamless am with reality. "Both places"? or just one, or did I create one link linkage, not; or do I go seamlessly between worlds of thought, for I am not incarcerated in time, or your ideas or your makings of time, or time that made you what it is that you think you are in, or incarcerated by. Ever again.

19. I love you all. I go. I stand and I love you all. Be me, be freedom, be love to all. Amen.

20. This is Theodore Cottingham at 1:28 AM. Thank you.
